When you come back to school...

...you might miss your family. You have been at home with your family for a long time so it's normal to miss them a little bit.

Your teachers care about you and will look after you. Your family will be thinking of you and will be so excited to hear about your day at school.

Even though you are not with them, you are still in each other's hearts.

When you come back to school...

...your friends will be happy to see you. You may not have seen your friends for a long time but they will be excited to see you. They will be waiting to play with you!

Even when we are apart, we are all still friends.

When you come back to school...

...the classroom may feel noisy. The classroom may feel a little busy and loud to begin with, especially if you have been at home with just your family.

Soon, you won't notice and you'll be busy playing and chatting with all your friends.

When you come back to school...

...most things will be just the same as they were before. Your classroom and teacher will be the same and it will be full of the same friends, adults and toys.

You will still be in your classroom bubble. You can play, learn and have fun inside your bubble.

When you come back to school...

...it might be hard to remember all of the things you have to do. Your teachers will remind you of all the things you need to know and if you forget something, just ask.

All of the grown-ups are here to help you settle back into school.
